

Job Shadow Narrative

Elizabeth
Cruz
3/15/16

During my job shadow I interviewed "Gera Rivera", as in helping older disabled adults. I job shadowed her on February 2016. Choosing Gera to job shadow really got me to know alot about it and being able to know how they work w/ older disabled Adults, and there special needs. This interview was taken in Farmersville on February 2016.

While I was there during the day I sat and asked Gera all the questions that I needed to ask her, throughout my job shadow. Although I learned and talked to the special need Adults and also worked w/ them, they can really understand.

It was a really good experience, but alot would get out of hand if they don't get their way. While I job shadowed that's exactly what some old was get out of control. Some have a lot of things that bother or annoy them.

I've learned during the interview I know not alot of people get what they want or get to have a full meal w/ soda everyday like us, or some don't live with their real parents. Knowing they always get picked up every morning from staff and going to the program for each day they stay. They need to learn their rights from wrong by not hitting or yelling at the staff, that's why there is staff to calm down.

AS IN A COUPLE DAYS I LEFT
AFTER MY JOB SHADOW, I AIN'T AS INTERESTED
AS I WAS BEFORE. BECAUSE, THAT JOB
IS NEEDING A LOT OF SUPERVISION AND WORK
FOR OLDER ADULTS NOT BEING ABLE TO WORK UP. IT'S TOO MUCH WORK FOR ME
AND A LOT OF ADULTS IN THE BUILDING
TO KNOW ABOUT AND THEIR SPECIAL NEEDS.